In Memory Of Irvia Slice.

A friend that will be missed in our home.
A friend that we will not meet any more
But we will meet him when the roll is called
Gracious Lord, forbid it not;
In the kingdom of our grace
Give a little child a place,
My trouble and my sorrow cease,
And I shall be at rest;
My soul shall enter into peace.
And be with Jesus blest.
My soul desires to leave this clay,
And find a better home;
And wait that bless'd and happy day,
To see my Savior come.
O Thou, my soul! forget no more,
The friend who all thy sorrows bore;
Let every idol be forgot;
But, O my soul! forget him not.
Oh! no, till life itself depart,
His name shall cheer and warm my heart;
And lisping this from earth I'll rise,
And join the chorus of the skies.
Your sweet voice has ceased to speak
And life has lost its charms for me.
A little School boy friend.
